

Leonor ZOZAYA (Madrid, 1975)

Assistant Professor, Department of Sciences and Historiographical Techniques (Paleography, Diplomatic, Epigraphy, Numismatics and related sciences) and Archeology, Complutense University, Madrid (Spain). e-mails: zozaya@ghis.ucm.es lezomon@yahoo.com

Education

- PHD in History from The Complutense University of Madrid, with the title of European Doctor (“Doctor Europeus”), maximum mark: sobresaliente Cum Laude. Thesis: The Archive of the Madrid Township during the Early Modern Age (1556-1606), 2008.
- B. A. in History, specialisation in Early Modern History, Complutense University of Madrid (UCM). MA courses in UCM (1993-1998).

Employment

- Paleographer, held at the Institute of History (IH), Spanish National Research Council (CSIC), 01/06- 31/10/1999.
- Assistant Professor, Department of Sciences and Historiographical Techniques, UCM, since 2006

Books

- L. Zozaya: El Archivo de la Villa de Madrid en la Edad Moderna (1556-1606), forthcoming, Ed. Trea (Gijón).
- L. Zozaya: El Archivo de la Villa de Madrid en la Alta Edad Moderna (1556-1606), Madrid, UCM, 2008, ISBN:978-84-669-3364-3, free in <http://eprints.ucm.es/8301/1/T30703.pdf>
- [ED.] VIII Jornadas Científicas sobre Documentación de la Hispania Altomedieval (Madrid, UCM, forthcoming), Dirs. J. C. Galende & J. de Santiago

Other Publications:

Ten scientific academic articles in national and international journals; five papers in national and international congresses; one book review; two translations about history in scientific reviews; several voices of literature for the Gran Enciclopedia Cervantina (Castalia, 2001, 2002) and for the Atlas of Popular Culture (Sinsentido Publishers, forthcoming in the proceedings).

Research experience:

Visiting researcher in internationally prestigious European centres: L'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris, supervisor: Bernard Vincent (09/04/2003-10/10/2003) ; L'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris, supervisor: Bernard Vincent (16/06/2002-16/12/2002) ; Saint John's College, University of Cambridge (England), supervisor: Peter Linehan (18/10/2001- 17/12/2001).

Fellowships

- Pre-doctoral fellowship awarded by Caja-Madrid Bank Foundation, held at the Institute of History (IH), Spanish National Research Council (CSIC), 2005-2006.
- CSIC postgraduate research grant; “i3P” grant; held at the CSIC, IH (Spanish National Research Council; Institute of History), 2003-2004.
- Pre-doctoral fellowship (“Beca de Formación de Profesorado Universitario”), awarded by Ministry of Science and Culture, held at the CSIC, IH, 1999-2003.
- Grant for Beginning Researchers (“Beca para la Incorporación de Técnicos a Equipos de Investigación Científica”), awarded by Autonomous Community of Madrid and European Social Found, held at the CSIC, IH, 1999-2000.
- Grant for Beginning Researchers (“Beca de Colaboración”), awarded by the University Complutense, held at the Department of Sciences and Historiographical Techniques, UCM, 1997-1998.

Areas of Expertise

Society in Early Modern Spain, Social History of Madrid in XVIth century & the beginnings of the XVIIth century. History of the mentalities. History of Archives.

*

For more information and publications on line, see the web page of the quoted Department